

I have taken "Learn at Ming Hua" certificate course for almost two years. Why do I have such motivation to take this course? I feel that I cannot be a baby anymore for my christian life. I am eager to build a more intimate relationship with God by knowing more about christianity.

"Learn at Ming Hua" courses provides the basic knowledge on bible study、 theology and liturgy. It benefits me by supplying the spiritual nutrition. I find that I become more energetic in church life. Moreover, I can share what I have learnt in the courses to my fellowship.

It is so amazing that I can forget how tired I was after whole day work during the lectures. This is the grace from God! I treasure these experiences so much!

Actually, "learn at Ming Hua" is not just only a study course. It is also a fellowship! I can build up friendship with the church members from different district in Hong Kong. We learn together. We share together especially in the tutorials and retreat camp. What a fruitful life in Ming Hua!
